AIRPORT PAID PARKING

Why has paid parking been implemented at Kalgoorlie-Boulder Airport?

Council made the decision to implement paid parking on 28 November 2016. The main motive behind the decision came from community comment that there is a lack of parking at the terminal, primarily due to FIFO workers leaving their vehicle parked long term.

What are the costs to park at Kalgoorlie-Boulder Airport?

The first 24hrs is free however, a valid ticket must be displayed at all times. Any additional parking will be charged at a rate of $10 per each additional 24 hour period or part thereof.

How do you pay?

Three ticketing machines are available at the airport. There are two located in the carpark which accept card only, and one inside the terminal which will also take coin payments up to $30.

How much does it cost to ratepayers?

There is no additional cost to ratepayers for the paid parking service as parking inspections are conducted by existing services provided by the Community Rangers.

Security at Kalgoorlie-Boulder Airport

Locations within the airport are under camera surveillance. The CCTV cameras installed in and around the parking area are part of our general security and safety measures. They are not for the purpose of monitoring vehicles.

What happens if I am delayed?

If your flight is delayed or you cannot return to your vehicle for reasons outside of your control, an infringement appeal form can be lodged with the City of Kalgoorlie-Boulder and will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

What happens if the ticket machine is not working?

There are 3 machines available to obtain a ticket. If one is not working, please purchase your ticket from an alternative machine.
